MEMPHIS APPEAL.

RECONSTRUCTION A SUCCESS.

The New York Times says:

It is useless to inquire how this somewhat complicate coil of reconstruction was wound up; the important consideration of the moment is that the great coil is beginning to unwind. Certain important results have been secured by the plan adopted. Impartial suffrage, without distinction of color, is an accomplished fact never to be annulled. The loyal people of the South have been given the foremost place, and it is with them that the great treaty has been made.

We do not attempt to disguise that many things have been done that might better been left undone. There has been too much partisan handling of the business. The disfranchisement of a quarter of a million of Southern whites is not only uncalled for and cowardly, but exceedingly unwise. If this measure had any excuse in the first instance, it certainly has none now. But, fortunately, its repeal rests with Congress and not with the States; therefore there is hope that ere long no class—whatever its attitude during the war—will be excluded from the ordinary privileges of citizenship.

The most hopeful feature of the new situation is that the processes of civil government will henceforth be carried on by the restored States, and that military government, with its expense, its unrepublican tendencies, and its many usurpations, will no longer be necessary.

The coil begins to unwind. Political disabilities will be removed by the next Congress. Military governments in the South will speedily cease. And whatever is unjust or inexpedient in the new Constitutions will in the course of time be eliminated.

The New York Times is, perhaps, on the whole, the fairest and most rational Radical journal of the country. See, nevertheless, in what an airy and Skimpolian fashion it treats the matter of that damnation of the South, which it calls "Reconstruction."

"The great coil is beginning to unwind." Aye, the reign of military despotism, in which there is at least something like respectability, is about to end; and the close of that despotism is a misfortune for the country which it has oppressed. The single sentence condenses into itself matter enough for a volume. It condemns Congress with a sentence like that which Tacitus pronounces on Vitellius. For the reign of Vitellius, in which human nature sinks to its lowest level and wallows in the ordure of baseness, and is saturated with all that is disgusting and detestable, is commencing in the South. "The coil is beginning to unwind," as the anaconda unwinds its coil when it has crushed the bones of its prey, and is about to commence the hideous process of deglutition, covering its victim with its saliva that it may swallow him whole.

"Certain important results have been secured by the plan adopted." Undoubtedly,—if it is "important" that a gallant and generous people who have borne adversity with a noble constancy and heroism, are crushed down into the condition of the population of Byzantium, when, under a depraved and cowardly Emperor, they were governed by slaves and eunuchs,—if it is "important" that half of the Southern States are the shame, the blot and the dishonor of the country, with negroes lolling in the chairs of legislation, and the scavengers of Jacobinism selected by them to infest the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States,—if it is "important" that an immortality of hate is secured, that a quenchless thirst for revenge is created, that the reign of the Devil has commenced in earnest. It is as if Priapus had expelled Apollo from Olympus, and with his train of Satyrs had defiled the ivory thrones of the Gods.

"The loyal people of the South have been given the foremost place, and it is with them that the great treaty has been made!" There is a devilish leering malice in the words. The negroes, invested with the right of suffrage, which becomes them much as a uniform coat becomes an otherwise naked Congo savage, are invested with the power of electing rulers and making laws for the disfranchised descendants of the Cavaliers, the Huguenots and the gentlemen of France. Is "impartial suffrage without distinction of color" an accomplished fact, never to be recalled? No! a thousand times no! It will not last a decade. There can no more be permanent political equality between an inferior and a superior race, than there can be social equality. One or the other race must yield, or one exterminate, exile or enslave the other. Even Radicalism cannot repeal the laws of God.

"Impartial suffrage!" when the Times admits that a quarter of a million of whites are disfranchised! Impartial suffrage means the lowering of everything to the level of the negro; that those who seek to legislate and rule are to crawl and creep and grovel at that level; that the basest and lowest of the white race, who alone will condescend so to degrade themselves, are to swarm into the councils of the nation; that in a little while there will be hardly a gentleman in Congress from the South; that votes will be everywhere for sale; that vagabondage, reeking with perjury and vice, will make and unmake public men, and pauperism make the laws, and property become what Proudhon called it, theft; and Mullins and Stokes become orators and statesmen, by comparison with the baser sort of favorites and pimps of African proletarianism, fit to associate with the constituents whom they well resemble.

There is no hope that Congress will remove political disabilities, unless it ceases to be Radical and becomes Democratic. If Radicalism continues in power, disfranchisement will continue also, as it is continued here in Tennessee.

The Times thinks that the most hopeful feature of the new situation is, that military government is about to end. Is it cause of congratulations to the white men of South Carolina, or to those of Ohio, or to the country, that military government in the former State gives way to a Legislature, a majority of whose members are negroes? That any respectable journal, that any decent man, can deem it so, is so monstrous as to be almost incredible. Are the men of the North such thrice-sodden asses as to imagine that the deleterious influences of negro suffrage, when they have tainted with rottenness the body politic of the Southern States, will not, by means of the Electoral Colleges and representation in Congress, extend to and be felt in the North?

At the next Census, every negro in the South will count the same as a free white man in the North, and the Scalawag strength in the lower House of Congress, and in voting for President will, of course, be largely increased. The whole of this vote will be for sale. Will it not be vastly agreeable to Ohio, Indiana and Illinois to have the free voices of their people stifled by the votes of Southern negroes, until they cease to have any voice as to the destinies of the country for which so many of their sons, fearfully in error, laid down their lives. An hundred thousand young men of the Northwest have died, to put the Southern States under the government of negroes and enable the beastly representatives of African constituencies to sell votes in Congress to the highest bidder.

Military government is about to disappear in Arkansas. What succeeds? Such a government as has no parallel in ancient or modern history. A government that has come into being reeking and rotten with fraud. Two men sit in the Senate of the United States, as Senators from Arkansas, who, if they had even that small degree of shame which prompts an Australian savage to hide his nakedness, would sneak out of the places (which, unfortunately, they cannot disgrace, while that leper of humanity, Sumner, and those blasphemous "scourges of God," Stevens and Wade, sit there), and slink by by-ways home, to tell the scurvy vagabonds who sent them there that they are capable of much, but not of everything; and that there is a depth of ignominy to which they cannot descend. In the House, the creatures who represent Arkansas may find congenial souls, since the average respectability of that body has sunk so low that a sorry gambler who still pretends to retain the relics of a lost gentility considers it an insult to be mistaken for a member of Congress, and would wash his right hand if it had come in contact with that of one at least of the miserable devils who sit as Representatives from Arkansas in the central cesspool of corruption of the Republic.

The Times thinks that military despotism has "unrepublican tendencies." The mild euphuism of the phrase is excellent. It is as if we were to say that the despotism of the Devil, if established on earth, would have "irreligious tendencies."

Better, as we have said before, better, a thousand times, military despotism than negro equality. One can only oppress the body and destroy such souls as are not worth the saving. The other kills the soul of the commonwealth, and corrupts its blood. The man who accepts the negro as his political equal, admits himself unworthy the race to which he belongs, and denies its superiority to the barbarian and savage. Lost to all sense of self-respect, he is no longer fit to be free. Political fellowship with the negro is the last curse that malignity can inflict upon a proud and brave people.

We congratulate the Northern States on their new associations, and hope they may find their partnership with negro Common-ills pleasant and profitable. If negro suffrage is, as the Times says, "an accomplished fact never to be annulled," we congratulate the vast mass of white men in the South who cannot vote, on their disfranchisement. They are relieved of all possible temptation to sell themselves to the devil of Radicalism, and cheat themselves into a belief that the profoundest degradation, voluntarily accepted for profit, is at least cousin-german to semi-respectability.

TENNESSEE.

—Dr. John B. Hayes, an old and highly respected citizen of Columbia, Tenn., died on the 3d inst.

—A friend from Wilson county informs us that the wheat in that section has turned out badly, and the crop will not be more than half as large as was expected.

—On Sunday last four convicts in the Penitentiary undermined the wall, and effected a deliverance. Three of the number were afterwards captured, while the fourth is still at large.—Nashville Gazette.

—Butman, one of the Marshals of the Bummer Celebration, danced with a negress, at Melrose, on the Fourth. The colored people present were highly indignant, and some soldiers went so far as to endeavor to secure his arrest. The same man is said to have rode his horse into the midst of the dance at the Orphan's Picnic.—Nashville Bunner.

—Ben Grisham, Esq., an estimable citizen of Columbia, fell dead as he was getting into his wagon to drive home from a neighbor's house, on Saturday last. Heart disease was the cause.

—In Nashville, on Tuesday, a young man, name unknown, fell to the sidewalk on North Cherry street, and died in a few minutes, from sunstroke.

—There is great excitement, says the Knoxville Press, in Hawkins county among the speculators in mineral lands. A company who have for several months been boring for salt, six miles north of Rogersville, on Big Poor Valley, have at a depth of 380 feet, struck a flowing spring of brine, equal to that of the Virginia salt works, which flows from the top of the well. The well was bored through soil for some 300 feet, and the last sixty feet or so was through solid rock. This would indicate that the supply of salt water is condensed into a lake similar to that of King's salt works in Virginia. The water is very strongly saturated with salt, and only a few gallons are required to make a pound of salt. We have seen a sample of the salt which appears to be of a good quality.

—Last Sunday morning about 3 o'clock says the Columbia Herald, as Mr. Tom Jordan, who lives in the southwestern limits of the corporation, was approaching his home, he was met in the road by a party of negroes, heavily armed. He reached home, however, in safety, and was preparing to retire, when some one knocked at the door. He demanded the names of his visitors, and their business, and they replied, "Come and see." He then told them that as the door was unlocked, they could come in. They thereupon knocked open the door, the light revealing three negroes, who immediately commenced firing on Jordan, and came very near hitting him. He returned the fire, and they retreated, Young Jordan's father, Mr. Edward Jordan, being awakened by the firing, put his head out of the window, and narrowly escaped getting it hit. The negroes fired about a dozen shots, after which they left. No evidence was obtained that any of them were hurt, and none of them have yet been apprehended.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

For President of the United States,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

Subject only to the decision of the National Democratic Conservative Convention.]

PLATFORM OF THE TENNESSEE DEMOCRACY.

1st. The Conservative men of Tennessee, putting aside all questions decided by the war, accept the title of "Democrats," and formally unite themselves with the Democratic party as it now exists.

2d. The question of the right of a State to secede from the Union has been decided by arms, and that decision should be accepted as final and conclusive.

3d. Nevertheless, while the Constitution makes the Federal Government supreme, it is so only with well defined limitations and restrictions, leaving the States large rights and powers over their domestic concerns, and making them coequal in respect of such rights; and these rights have not been impared by the result of the war, or the powers of the General Government aggrandized by it, to the endangerment of public liberty.

4th. The extinguishment of African Slavery is recognized as a fact, ratified by a binding Constitutional Amendment.

5th. The investiture of negroes with the right of suffrage, by the Congress of the United States, and the disfranchisement of white men, by the same authority, is a gross usurpation of power, and a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war of races: the white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State governments; and any measure intended to deprive them of it, or to divide or impair it, greatly endangers the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

6th. The faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the national debt, according to the terms of the laws under which the bonds were issued, and not otherwise. The time of payment of the bonds ought not to be extended; the principal of the five-twenty bonds ought to be paid in currency, and the money granted to the National banks to be withdrawn.

7th. The Government bonds should be taxed in the hands of the bondholders, equally with other property.

8th. The doctrines and practices of the Radical party, which endeavors, by encroaching upon the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government, to absorb in the Legislative Department all powers, tend to the destruction of the Republican system of Government and the civil liberties of the people.

9th. Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administration of our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies; the preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of peace at home and safety abroad; a jealous care of the rights of election by the people and the supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

10th. Andrew Johnson the first choice of the Democracy of Tennessee; but their Delegates left free to unite in selecting another as the candidate for the Presidency.

We learn that in the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of New York, at Canandaigua, Allen P. Hewlett has been convicted of secreting his property from his assignee in bankruptcy, and sentenced to the penitentiary for one year and eleven months. The extreme penalty of the law demanded for the offense in section 44 is three years.

AT A MEETING of the Radicals of Boone township, Franklin county, on the 20th ult., it was

Resolved, That we will not vote for any independent candidates, nor will we vote for, support or countenance for office any man who uses intoxicating liquors as a beverage; and that we most earnestly request and recommend all citizens to subscribe for and read the Missouri Democrat.

That is like the inscriptions on a fence in this city, which reads:

BUY HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. | BUY YOUR COFFINS OF HOLTS & CO.

A Strange Story.

Under this heading the Nashville Banner has the following "fish story," which may be true, but to us sounds extremely apocryphal:

At one of our city hotels yesterday a very strange phenomena occurred. A large piece of ice was put into a large glass of milk for one of the guests. The ice was allowed to entirely dissolve before the gentleman proceeded to drink the milk; as he was bringing the glass to his lips his penetrating eye detected some things moving in the milk, and, on examination, the moving things were found to be very small fishes, which had been congealed in the ice for five or six months, and were revived by the congenial heat of the milk. The gentleman immediately improvised a little aquarium, and his little pets, as he calls them, are growing vigorous and lively by the hour.

"THE indications are that patriots enough will be found who will consent to fill all the official positions which the people have at their disposal."

So says the St. Joseph (Mo.) Union, adding—"The names of the candidates of this (that) district are legion." Just so. But are there not too few offices for these "patriots" to fill? Or, in the language of Mr. Lincoln, are there not "too many pegs for the holes?" Your Radical patriot is always a host in himself when there is a fat office to fill.—St. Louis Republican.

If we are not mistaken, a Radical hurdy-gurdy in Memphis squawked out a like triumphant note, some months ago. It has turned out that here also there are "too many pegs for the holes;" and consequently discord reigns and rules among the Condottieri and Lanzknechts of Radicalism.

GENERAL ITEMS.

—Wool is selling at from thirty to forty cents a pound in Michigan.

—Potatoes are selling for a penny a pound in Ireland.

—Three-fifths of the Boston girls seen on the streets carry books in brown paper pressed against their bosoms.

—A lady of New York has spent two months in coloring a meerschaum, and doesn't give it up yet.

—Thirty car loads of live stock come eastward, over the Kansas Pacific Railway, daily.

—Toronto is declared to be one of the dirtiest cities in the world.

—Scarlet and blue are the fashionable colors for bathing dresses.

—A Parisian gardener has produced a rosebush with 1500 full roses.

—Ex-President Buchanan left exactly $330,582.

—Ole Bull is said to be going to China.

—Prince Alfred secured O'Farrell's

—The Radicals attempted to get up a Grant and Colfax pole and flag raising in a town in Connecticut the other day, and they could not muster force enough to erect the pole. They had to call upon the Democrats for assistance.

SPECIAL TO MEMPHIS APPEAL.

THE CONVENTION.

EIGHTEEN BALLOTS WITHOUT A NOMINATION.

PENDLETON KILLED BY HIS FRIENDS.

THE CONTEST NOW BETWEEN HANCOCK AND HENDRICKS.

The Nomination will be Made To-day.

Special Dispatch to Memphis Appeal.]

NEW YORK, July 8, 9:30 p.m.—The seventh ballot, which was taken immediately upon the call to order, indicated activity on the part of Pendleton's friends during the previous night—counting 137½, Johnson falling away to 12½, Hancock counting 42½, and Hendricks 39½.

On the tenth ballot Pendleton advanced to 147, Hendricks 82½, Hancock declining to 34, and Johnson to six.

On the eighteenth and closing ballot Pendleton fell to 56½, Hendricks advanced to 87, and Hancock to 144½. Johnson receiving a full Tennessee vote, and Chase ½ from California, given him since the twelfth ballot. On the eighteenth ballot Illinois voted full for Hendricks, and contrary to instructions of their Convention.

The delegate from the Second District protested and entered vote for Andrew Johnson.

The Chairman overruled, but the Convention sustained him.

The vote of the Tennessee delegation, up to the 18th ballot, stood as follows: Pendleton—Bate, House, Forrest, Campbell, Connor, Caldwell, Marberry, McLoughlin, Walker, Johnson, Nelson, Nichols, Joe Leftwich, Cooper, Ramage, Thomas, Kyle, White, Williams, Edwards and Thompson.

The race is now between Hancock and Hendricks, with odds of one hundred to twenty, in favor of the former.

Chase and Johnson are now conceded out of the race.

Pendleton men are bitter against Hendricks, and will oppose him for either office, preferring Blair for Vice President.

The West and Southwest are caucussing for the latter to-night.

It is rumored that Pennsylvania and New York are holding out to the Western men, and will make a rush for Chase. Also, that Hendricks will be withdrawn to-morrow.

The nomination will be made to-morrow.

Pendleton was killed by his friends.

Johnson is the most popular of all the candidates, but fears of his making a race will prevent his nomination.

J. M. K.

MAINE.

PORTLAND, July 8.—The Republican State Convention to-day nominated Joshua F. Chamberlain for Governor and appointed Electors. The resolutions indorse Grant and Congress.

NEW YORK.

SYRACUSE, July 8.—The State Radical Convention to-day nominated John A. Griswold for Governor. The platform indorses Congress and Grant. An electoral ticket was also nominated.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, July 8.—A conspiracy to deprive the Queen, and place Don Antonia, the Duke of Pontpenster, at the head of the Government of Spain, has been discovered. Five prominent Generals have been arrested.

RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, July 8.—Mark Grayson, the pedestrian, left here to-day to walk to Omaha, making sixty Democratic speeches en route. The trip is to consume forty-five days. He carries a flag marked "Democracy." A large crowd followed him to the suburbs.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, July 8.—Gen. Canby has issued an order restoring civil rule in North Carolina, when the President shall have proclaimed the ratification of the 14th amendment. Then the functions of military officers are to cease. The prisoners under charges for violations of the reconstruction laws, are to be discharged, and those for other offenses are to be turned over to the civil authorities.

COLUMBIA, July 8.—Gov. Orr's last message was sent to the Legislature to-day.

The constitutional amendment was adopted by the Senate, five only voting in the negative.

Gov. Scott will probably be inaugurated to-morrow.

The chief contest for the Senatorship in this district is between A. G. Mackey, Collector of the port of Charleston, and F. A. Sawyer, Assessor of Internal Revenue.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Gen. McDowell has arrived in this city, and to-day reported to the Secretary of War in accordance with his order. Subsequently he was accompanied by Secretary Schofield to the White House, and paid his respects to President Johnson.

The Senate's Judiciary Committee this morning took up Wm. M. Evart's nomination for Attorney-General, and after a discussion it was agreed to report favorably, Trumbull, Frelinghuysen, Johnson and Hendricks voting in the affirmative against Stewart, Edmonds and Conkling.

The bill providing for bi-ennial sessions of the Territorial Legislatures was considered to-day by the Senate's Committee on Territories, and the Chairman was authorized to report favorably thereon. The bill fixes the salaries of the Governors of Territories at $2500 per annum.

Fowler's bill providing for the election of Governors and their Secretaries, of Territories, by the people, was laid over for this session.

A letter from Senator Grimes, at Bath, says his health is almost wholly restored. He has gained in flesh, and does not find any difficulty in using his limbs. He does not propose to return to the Senate this session, but will shortly return to his home in Iowa.

Gen. Howard, with the approval of the Secretary of War, has initiated measures for the early withdrawal of the Bureau from South Carolina. Gen. Scott, Commissioner of that State, having been elected Governor, it would be necessary to put a man in his place, but he will remain connected with the Bureau until a proper officer can be selected. Gen. Howard directs him to recommend a suitable man for the position, and to reduce the number of agents as soon as possible.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Fourth Day's Proceedings.

NEW YORK, July 8, 11 a.m.—The Convention was called to order at 10:30—Seymour in the chair. The hall was filled in every part, many ladies being present. Prayer and the reading of the minutes of yesterday were dispensed with.

Missouri called for the reading of the names of the National Democratic Executive Committee, which was ordered. These were given in the morning papers for all the States except New York and California.

Price, of Missouri, assumed the chair.

Bayard, of Delaware, said there was some mistake about the name recorded for that State, and asked that it be omitted in the call. He was sure the name as published had not been agreed to by a majority of the delegates.

The list was read. California named John Bigler. New York named August Belmont.

Fitch, of Indiana, rose to present one of its most talented citizens as a candidate before this Convention for Presidential nomination—one of the best and purest men of the nation. He had thought right to cast his vote a reasonable length of time for Pendleton, but in the opinion of the majority of the delegates, that reasonable time had passed, although a minority were still of opinion that they ought to adhere further to the gentleman of Ohio. The majority had no disposition, even if it had the power, to force their views upon the minority. In conclusion, he briefly eulogized and nominated Thos. A. Hendricks.

Price, of Indiana, for the minority, urged adherence to Pendleton. He expressed the highest respect for Hendricks, but said the minority should not go for him, because the State Convention declared for Pendleton against the most earnest and persistent opposition. In accordance with that preference, the delegation resolved to stand by Pendleton so long as there was any reasonable hope of his nomination. Great cheers and some hisses.

The roll was then called. At each vote for Pendleton the galleries applauded vociferously. The same demonstrations greeted Hendricks.

Mississippi went for Pendleton on this ballot.

The vote of New York for Church was cheered.

During the roll call, an Oregon delegate attempted to explain the vote the delegation would give, but was ruled out of order, as he admitted he had no new candidate. He said he only wanted to nominate Pendleton.

Tennessee gave 4½ for Pendleton for the first time.

SEVENTH BALLOT.

English, 6; Hancock, 42½; Pendleton, 137½. [cheers]; Parker, 7; Church, 33; Packer, 26; Johnson, 12½; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 39½. [cheers]; Blair, ½. No choice.

Tilden asked leave for the New York delegation to retire for consultation, all the members of the delegation having asked it. It was objected to. The question was put to the Convention and decided in the affirmative.

Clymer, of Pennsylvania, moved for a recess of fifteen minutes, which was carried. At the expiration of the time the Chair called the Convention to order.

It is rumored that New York will break on the next ballot, casting the larger part, if not all, her vote for Hendricks. This is denied by some, who say that while New York will leave Church to-day, unless he receives support from other States, they are not yet ready to drop him.

The excitement and anxiety is intense. The clerk proceeded to call the roll on the eighth ballot, each vote being received with demonstrations of applause by friends of the candidates in the galleries.

Louisiana went over from Hancock to Pendleton. Mississippi also voted solid for Pendleton.

At the conclusion of the call, Tilden, by the unanimous vote of the delegation and consent of Church, withdrew the latter, and cast 33 for Hendricks. [Wild and long continued cheers, with hisses.]

EIGHTH BALLOT.

English, 6; Hancock, 28; Pendleton, 156½ [cheers]; Parker, 7; Packer, 26; Andrew Johnson, 7; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 75 [cheers]; Blair, ½. Whole number of votes, 317. No choice.

There having been occasional hissing in the galleries, the President announced that they would be cleared if it was repeated. Cries of "good," "good," and applause.

NINTH BALLOT.

English, 6; Hancock, 34½; Pendleton, 144; Parker, 7; Packer, 26½; Johnson, 5½; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 88½; Blair, ½. It will be seen that Pendleton lost in Maryland and in North and South Carolina. No choice.

On the 10th ballot, when Connecticut was called, the Chairman announced the vote 3 for English, and 3 for Pendleton. A member of the Connecticut delegation arose and denied it, and insisting that the vote was 6 for English.

Eaton, of Connecticut, said he was Chairman of the Delegation, and entitled to cast its vote.

Seymour ruled that the delegations must settle these questions among themselves, and ordered Connecticut to be passed by until she should agree upon her vote. Subsequently her vote was cast—three for Hendricks and three for Pendleton.

TENTH BALLOT.

Hancock, 34; Pendleton, 147½; Parker, 7; Packer, 27½; Johnson, 6; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 82½; Blair, ½.

Gibson, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution proposing a nomination by acclamation. Price being in the chair, ruled it out of order. A motion to adjourn was made and lost.

ELEVENTH BALLOT.

Hancock, 82½; Pendleton, 144½; Parker, 7; Packer, 26; Johnson, 2½; Doolittle, 12½; Hendricks, 88; [cheers] Blair, ½. On this ballot, North Carolina gave her 9 for Hendricks. New Hampshire split her vote between Pendleton 1½, Hancock, 2½, Doolittle and Blair each ½.

The roll was called for the twelfth ballot, when California led off with a half vote for Chase. There was great and long-continued applause in the galleries, and a scene of confusion ensued.

A motion to clear the galleries was made, which was greeted with mingled hisses and cheers.

A New York delegate said, excitedly, that the applause was from citizens of New York in the galleries; that he was a delegate, and opposed the clearing of the galleries; some of the men had come thousands of miles who were in the galleries; they were Democrats, and had a right to applaud when they pleased. [Great cheers.]

After some further conference the roll was called on the twelfth ballot, with the following result:

TWELFTH BALLOT.

Hancock, 30; Pendleton, 145½; Parker, 7; Packer, 26; Johnson, 4½; Doolittle, 12½; Hendricks, 89; Blair, ½; McClellan 1; Chase, ½.

When McClellan received one vote from Tennessee the galleries applauded loudly, but not so long as when Chase's name was uttered by California.

A motion was made for a recess of fifteen minutes.

Vallandigham moved to adjourn thirty minutes, which was agreed to.

THIRTEENTH BALLOT.

On reassembling, the thirteenth ballot was taken with the following result: Hancock, 48½; Pendleton, 133½; Parker, 7; Packer, 26; Johnson, 4½; Doolittle, 13; Hendricks, 81; Blair, ½; Franklin Pierce, 1; Chase, ½. No choice.

The following were among the changes on this ballot: North Carolina gave her 9 for Hancock instead of Pendleton; Virginia changed solidly to Hancock, instead of 9½ for Pendleton as before.

FOURTEENTH BALLOT.

The fourteenth ballot was taken at once and resulted as follows: Hancock, 56, [cheers]; Pendleton, 130; Parker, 7; Packer, 26; Doolittle, 13; Hendricks, 84½.

Among the changes on this ballot were Nebraska, who went from Pendleton to Hendricks, and Tennessee, who dropped Johnson and gave Pendleton 5½ and Hendricks 4½.

FIFTEENTH BALLOT.

On the fifteenth ballot Pennsylvania voted solidly for Hancock, with the following result: Hancock, 79½; Pendleton, 129½; Parker, 7; Johnson, 5½; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 82½.

The roll was then called for the sixteenth ballot, in which Arkansas changed 5 votes from Pendleton to Hancock. Georgia gave 2½ for Pendleton and 6½ for the man who, when the war was over, laid his sword on the altar of civil law. Louisiana changed to Hancock, and Mississippi did the same. [Cheers.] Missouri gave Hancock 2 additional to its preceeding vote, and Maryland gave him 5½ of her 7 votes. Each vote for Hancock was greeted with cheers.

SIXTEENTH BALLOT.

Hancock, 113½; Pendleton, 107½; Parker, 7; Johnson, 5½; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 70½.

The Kentucky delegation retired for consultation, and Seymour resumed the Chair.

Michigan moved for a recess till 5 o'clock, which was lost.

New York asked leave to retire for consultation, and the Chair announced that as Kentucky Illinois and New York all desired to retire for consultation, business would be suspended until their return; but objections being made, the Chair said that allowance must be made for the exhaustion of the Secretaries, and he therefore announced a ten minutes recess, during which there was a widespread opinion that Hancock would be nominated on the next ballot.

On reassembling the roll was called for the seventeeth ballot, in which Alabama led off with 8 votes for Hancock; Arkansas followed with 5 for the same; Connecticut gave him 3, Kansas 1, Minnesota 2, New Hampshire 5, and West Virginia 1. Illinois answered after the general roll had been called, and Richardson announced the vote of Illinois as follows: Pendleton, 8½; Johnson, ½, and Hendricks 7.

Before the Kentucky and Missouri delegates came in to vote, Tilden, of New York, said the Convention had reached a point when conference and consultation between the delegations is important, and he moved an adjournment as soon as the pending ballot should be decided.

Vallandigham seconded the motion to adjourn. [Cries of "no," "no," "yes," yes."]

The vote on adjournment was demanded by States, but the roll call was suspended until the seventeenth ballot should be closed, in which Kentucky came in with 5 for Hancock and 5 for Pendleton, and the result of said ballot was announced thus:

SEVENTEENTH BALLOT.

Hancock, 137½, [cheers]; Pendleton, 75½; Parker, 7; Johnson, 6; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 70; Chase, ½; Hoffman, 3.

The question was then taken on adjournment, which was lost—yeas 142½, nays 170½.

A motion of New York for a recess to 7 o'clock was made and lost, and the roll was then called.

On the eighteenth ballot Florida gave her 3 to Hancock, and when Illinois was called, Richardson said his delegation was instructed to vote as a unit, but on the last ballot he had consented to divide the vote, but he should on this ballot cast the vote as a unit, though against his will, for Hendricks, but a delegate from Illinois demanding to be recorded for Pendleton, Richardson withdrew the vote, which had been cast, for the present. Illinois and New York gave Hancock 3, Pendleton ½, and Parker 8½; Tennessee cast her 10 votes for Johnson, ever faithful to one who was ever faithful to his country; West Virginia gave Hendricks 5; Illinois announced her vote as 16 for Hendricks, but one of her delegates again protested that his vote should be cast for Pendleton, and another delegate from the Second District of Illinois waived his vote recorded for Andrew Johnson.

The chair (Price) said by order of the Convention the Chairman of each delegation was authorized to speak for the State. Great confusion followed, but the chair proceeded to announce the vote as follows:

EIGHTEENTH BALLOT

Hancock, 144½; Pendleton, 56½; Parker, 3½; Johnson, 10; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 87; Hoffman, 3.

Seymour then took the chair and the delegate from the Second District of Illinois insisted as a point of order that each delegate to this Convention had the right to record his own vote according to his own views and sentiments, and moved a resolution to that effect.

The chair ruled the resolution out of order, because it was in contravention of the rules adopted for the government of the Convention. He said that it had been decided in former conventions that each delegation had a right to determine the vote of the delegation as a whole.

Bayard argued that this was a strange view of the rules, as this was a deliberative body, and each delegate, he thought, had a right to vote for himself.

Clymer, of Pennsylvania, read from the proceedings of the Charleston Convention the rule adopted there, which recognized the right of each delegate to cast his individual vote, except where a State Convention had instructed its delegates how to vote. The delegate from the Second District of Illinois claimed the right to cast his vote for Andrew Johnson, whom he eulogised as a defender of the Constitution and the rights of the people.

Richardson stated that the Illinois Convention had instructed their delegation to vote for Pendleton. A majority of the delegation have decided now to go for other distinguished gentlemen, and he considered it his duty to cast the entire vote of the delegation.

There was here another scene of great confusion, amid which an adjournment was moved and carried, and the Convention adjourned until 10:30 a.m. to-morrow.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, July 8.—The Legislature to day, after some unimportant business, went into a joint session and selected Wm. P. Kellogg United States Senator for the long term and John S. Harris for the short term.

The Democratic members of both Houses to-day presented a communication to Gen. Buchanan, reciting that the presiding officers of both Houses had proceeded, in violation of the State Constitution, the instruction of the General of the Army and the General commanding the Department, in excluding members who were entitled to seats, and they now appeal, in behalf of the people of Louisiana, for redress, and ask the military commander, by virtue of his authority, to place them (the said excluded members) in their seats.

Gen. Buchanan replies by saying that while, in his opinion, these proceedings are illegal, unjust and oppressive, and are known to be in opposition to the will of the General-in-Chief, yet he deems that the interests of law, order and the people of the State, in this crisis, will not be best subserved by a forcible interference to correct the abuses complained of; but says he will forward their communication, with a copy of his letter, to Gen. Grant and the Chairman of the Reconstruction Committee.

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

An evening session was ordered for Friday, and the House proceeded to consider the Senate's amendments to sundry civil expenses of the Appropriation bill, the most of which were non-concurred in, and a Conference Committee asked for.

The House then took up the former bill for the removal of political disabilities from certain parties. The name of Chas. W. Helm, of Leavenworth, was struck out, and among those inserted was the name of Edward Copeland, of Kentucky, and the bill was passed by the two-thirds vote.

Garfield reported that the Military Committee would, on Friday evening, report a bill reducing the army nearly one-half. He also reported a bill establishing rules and regulations for the government of the army, which would also, he hoped, be considered Friday evening.

The bill to transfer to the Interior Department certain powers and duties now exercised by the Secretary of the Treasury, in connection with the Indian Affairs, was passed.

SENATE.

Edmonds, from the Judiciary Committee, reported with a recommendation to indefinitely postpone the bill to regulate and limit the admiralty jurisdiction of district courts.

The Judiciary Committee was relieved from the further consideration of the bill to allow Indians to testify in courts, in certain cases.

McDonald introduced a bill for aid in the construction of the International Pacific Railroad from Cairo to the Rio Grande.

Also a bill to provide levees to secure the lowlands of Arkansas and Missouri from inundation, which was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

NOTICE.

City subscribers to the APPEAL, daily or weekly, who may desire to leave the city for the summer, can have their papers sent them regularly by leaving a memorandum at the Counting-room of the APPEAL, No. 13 Jefferson street.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Correspondents who wish to have any attention paid to their communications must observe the following rules:

Be brief, concise and to the point, avoid the "flowers of rhetoric," and confine yourself to a plain statement of facts. Write on but one side of the paper in a clear hand, and with pen and ink, giving your words and sentences plenty of room. In all cases the real name and address of the writer must accompany the manuscript. Articles which redound to personal or individual benefit, or are of a personal nature, will only be inserted as "advertisements" or "paid cards."

NINTH DAY--Thursday.--Sun rises 5:04; sets 7:50.

TENNESSEE BLOOD.--"Pat Molloy," so well and favorably known on our Memphis course, won the race at Chicago last Friday.

JUDGE WALDRAN.--In our report of the Courts to-day will be found the order restraining Judge Waldran. It is an interesting document, and will repay reading. "Go it, old man--go it bear!"

PERSONAL.--Capt. D. DeHaven returned to the city yesterday, and was present at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, an earnest spectator and co-worker in everything which tends to the commercial prosperity of the country.

W. H. PASSMORE & Co., this morning at 10 o'clock, will continue the sale of furniture, etc., which attracted a large number of buyers yesterday. A fine mahogany parlor set, wardrobes, bureaus, washstands, a fine sideboard, chairs, bedsteads, bedding, etc., will be offered; also a lot of wines, etc.

AUCTION.--To-day, at 10 a.m. and 7 p. m., will be sold a large lot of York Mills' Shirtings, slightly damaged by water; also 40 elegant Grenadine Dress Patterns, 2000 yards Calico (best brands), Ladies' Bonnets, 24 Silk Sacques, and ladies' and gentlemen's furnishing goods, in great variety. Must be sold to-day and to-morrow. STRAUSS & BLUM, 213 Main street.

THE BASE BALL MATCH advertised to come off for the championship, was summarily put an end to after about an hour's play, yesterday evening, by the heavy rain which came up. About 3½ o'clock the game was called and further playing postponed till Friday at 3 o'clock. At the call the "Bluff City" stood 13 to the "Pride of the South's" 2. The Pride will have to look to their laurels on Friday.

JOE LOCKE has on hand Peterson's magazine for August, all of the magazines and comic monthlies for July; the Dixie Farmer, (an illustrated agricultural paper, printed at Nashville,) Harper's Bazaar and Weekly, Literary Album, Southern Home Journal, Scientific American, New York Weekly, Metropolitan Record, La Crosse Democrat, Day's Doings, and a host of other monthlies, weeklies and dailies. Call and examine for yourself.

WEATHER AND CROPS.--For the past three days the weather has been showery. Yesterday afternoon we had quite a hard rain, accompanied by thunder and lightning, which continued all the afternoon and evening. Very favorable reports have come to us from all quarters about the growing crops, the only complaint and drawback having been the drought. From all that we can learn the rain has been general, and the prospects of an overwhelming crop are proportionately increased.

THE TRUSTEESHIP. --- Wickersham having been deposed, dethroned and set aside, it now becomes incumbent on somebody--the public, its representatives, or misrepresentatives, in some form or capacity--to fill the vacancy. As usual, in everything appertaining to the government or management of the affairs of this God-forsaken portion of the American Union, there is a wrangle over the authority to act in the matter. We are not learned enough in the Code to discuss the affair by paragraphs and sections, but are informed by an evening cotemporary that is, that notwithstanding the right is clearly with somebody, the somebody else has the might, and as the might makes right, now-a-days, we suppose the "somebody else," who, in this instance, are the County Commissioners, will nominate the new incumbent. However, the Justices, in whom of old the right was vested, are determined not to allow it to escape their grasp, as will be shown by the appended call. All Justices seem to have any regard for their ancient privileges and rights are earnestly requested to attend:

The Justices of the Peace of Shelby county, Tenn., are requested to meet at the City Hall (Exchange Building) on Saturday, the 11th inst., at 10 o'clock a.m. Business of importance, in relation to a County Trustee, will be transacted. Every Justice is expected to be present. A JUSTICE.

HEAVY ROBBERY.--Last night about eleven o'clock a daring and heavy robbery was perpetrated at the residence of O. P. Cobb, Esq., 122 Court street. The circumstances as near as we could learn them, amid the confusion attendant on the affair, were as follows: There was an entertainment consisting of tableaux or something of that sort, at Mr. Cobb's during the evening, and all the family were in the lower story, leaving the upper part of the house open and unguarded. About quarter to eleven o'clock Mr. Bigley of the firm of Bigley, Mellersh & Co., who was a guest at the house, noticed something peculiar in the actions of a man in the back yard with a light in his hand, and informed Mr. Cobb of the fact. On hailing him, the party in the yard proved to be a negro man named Jim, who was in Mr. Cobb's employ. Something in his manner attracted Mr. Cobb's suspicions, and he immediately thought of the unprotected condition of the upper portion of the house, and of a box containing several hundred dollars worth of valuables which had been carelessly left in one of the rooms. He immediately went to see to its safety, and on entering the room in which it had been left, found that the box was gone. The alarm was raised forthwith, and Col. Beaumont, who lives directly opposite, on Court street, called in. He took Jim into custody, and on searching the back yard found three other negroes concealed, all of whom were arrested and carried to the First District station. At writing nothing has been heard of the box or its contents--some $1000 in bonds and $500 worth of jewelry--but it will come to light to-day, as the parties arrested were without doubt the robbers or their accomplices.

POLICE ITEMS.

--Yesterday was dull up to the dullness of a Dutch commentary on Shakspeare--absolutely nothing having been done.

--There were six arrests in the first district up to 10 o'clock, and four in the second.

--In the Justice courts, with the exception of a couple of peace warrants, there was a succession of blank dockets.

--Thirteen cases were tried in the first district court yesterday morning, but the Commissioner did not succeed in getting anything out of the lot.

--No news has been heard as yet from the jewelry stolen from Mr. Fitch, of the Gas Company.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Adjourned Meeting Yesterday.

A Full Attendance.

At 12 o'clock m. yesterday the Chamber met, pursuant to the resolution of adjournment on last Wednesday. President, T. A. Nelson, Esq., in the Chair, and about twenty-five members.

The meeting was called to order by the Chair, and in doing so he remarked that, "Time is money to business men," and he earnestly hoped that gentlemen would be brief and concise in what they had to say, confine themselves to the matter under discussion, and not take up the time of the Chamber with irrelevant motions or speeches. "We are," he added, "on the eve and in the midst of a very high political excitement, and I hope that the gentlemen in introducing resolutions and communications, and in their speeches will leave out politics and things that would lead to political wrangling or discussions. We do not meet as politicians, but as merchants, and I earnestly request that while meeting here, the political prejudices, which we all have more or less, will be laid aside. If the merchants of Memphis will, during the coming three months, show an united front, and inspire confidence, prosperity will crown their efforts and all will be well. The merchants of Memphis have been and are to a certain extent prostrated, but by this course they will soon be on their feet again, and Memphis will show herself to be a small giant, if not a big one. I am satisfied, no matter what has been said to the contrary, that the merchants are not all broke; if they could collect and get what is coming to them they would be on their feet now. We must assist in building up the railroads and other public enterprises, and I say we must present a united front."

At the close of Mr. Nelson's remarks, Capt. Mahan rose, and said he cordially agreed in what the Chair said in regard to politics, and in view of his unfortunate motion at last meeting, wished to introduce one now; but was informed by the Chair that he was in too great a hurry, and that he was out of order.

The first thing in order was appointing the committees created by resolution at the last meeting, and the Chair announced the following as the regular standing committees under that resolution:

On Commerce.--J. T. Stratton, W. M. Farrington, E. M. Apperson.

On Immigration.--W. B. Doncho, W. B. Greenlaw, B. Bayliss.

On Insurance.--W. W. Schoolfield, Napoleon Hill, D. H. Townsend.

On Supporting Chamber.--Captain James Lee, John S. Toof, S. M. Gates.

On Freight by Steamboats.--A. S. Harris, C. W. Goyer, F. M. Mahan.

On Freights by Railroad.--Memphis and Charleston Road.--J. T. Petit, W. R. Moore, J. C. Neely. Memphis and Ohio Road.--S. M. Gates, S. B. Williamson, O. F. Prescott. Mississippi and Tennessee Road.--W. B. Galbreath, J. L. Verser, Dr. P. S. Jones.

On Agriculture.--G. Falls, Hume F. Hill, O. B. Parker.

On Manufacture.--Joseph Bruce, John Johnson, M. E. Cochran.

On the announcement of the committees, S. M. Gates introduced a series of instructions or suggestions as to the duties of the various committees, which, on motion, were referred unanimously to the committees themselves.

Capt. Mahan was then notified that his resolution or motion would be in order, and he introduced the following:

WHEREAS, The Chamber of Commerce of this city is an institution chartered for the purpose of advancing the commercial interests of Memphis, and assisting the development of the resources of the surrounding country, and as a corporation lending its influence to no political party,

Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Memphis in its membership, representing the wealth, integrity and enterprise of this community, do hereby extend a cordial welcome to all good citizens without distinction of party, seeking a location for a permanent home in our midst, assuring them of the hearty co-operation of this association in the advancement of the commercial interests of this city and surrounding country.

Mr. Gates moved to amend by adding the words "and no political subject shall be brought into discussion before this Chamber."

The chair thought that altogether unnecessary, as no gentleman would be discourteous enough to introduce such subjects after what had been said by him.

Mr. Gates withdrew his amendment, and Capt. Mahan's motion was put to the Chamber and carried.

Mr. Farrington introduced the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, A convention has been called to assemble at Bristol, Tenn., on the 15th day of July, 1868, of the people, and the States friendly to direct trade between Norfolk, Va. and European ports, and to the immigration of population to settle the lands on the various lines of railroad in the South; and

Whereas, The great line between Memphis and Norfolk is one of the most direct and important terminating at Norfolk; and

Whereas, The city of Memphis is deeply interested in carrying into practical effect these great schemes of commercial and agricultural enterprise; therefore

Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Memphis hereby appoint M. J. Wicks, Esq., William R. Hunt, Esq., Col. Sam Tate, Landon C. Haynes, Esq., Wm. B. Waldran, Esq., Hon. Geo. Dixon, T. S. Tate, of Hernando, Miss., M. R. Sledge, of Miss., L. Y. Dixon, Esq., J. E. Haynes, Esq., L. J. Murphy, Esq., and T. A. Nelson, Esq., to represent the city of Memphis in said Convention.

Mr. Gates would respectfully suggest that the expression of an opinion by the Chamber of Commerce in reference to Norfolk or any other particular seaport as an outlet to the sea for the trade of Memphis, should be suspended for the present.

Mr. Farrington was requested to read the resolutions over, and after doing so he took occasion to say that he had given but little attention to the subject--was not the author of the resolutions, which were given him on his way to this meeting, and which he had never read until then. He cared nothing about the expression of an opinion by the Chamber on this or that seaport, but he did not see why the interests of Memphis should not be represented in this Convention.

Mr. Gates said he had no objection to the interests of Memphis being represented, but did not think Norfolk should be chosen to the detriment of other ports. He might be narrowminded, he said, (and if he was not, his arguments most certainly were), but he wanted to know if Norfolk were chosen for the outlet of our trade, if the produce of North Alabama, Central and Eastern Tennessee would come here to be sent right back over the same road again.

Mr. Farrington said that Col. L. C. Haynes, who was present, was well posted in this matter, and he would suggest that Col. Haynes be called upon to give the meeting his views.

Col. Haynes being called upon by the Chair, said that his friend, Farrington, was mistaken in thinking him well posted in the matter. It was one, however, which he felt a deep interest in; he had received a letter from some old and valued friends in Norfolk, requesting him to have the merchants of Memphis aroused to action in the matter, and to urge upon the Chamber of Commerce to send some representative to the Convention, to be held at Bristol on the 15th instant; he had spoken of it to Mr. Wicks and other gentlemen, most of whom are named in the resolution, and they agreed to go to the Convention if requested to do so. He thinks with Mr. Gates, that Memphis should hold herself in a position to command all the trade which she is entitled to by nature; but he also thinks that a committee should be appointed to meet this Convention. By choosing Norfolk we might lose a certain portion of trade, but he cannot see how Memphis ever can hope to be a great city and commercial center, unless she puts herself in direct communication with the great marts. On this depends your commercial prosperity, and all trades and professions depend immediately on the commercial prosperity of a community. Every man is interested in it therefore. He was happy, he said, to see the vitality of the Chamber of Commerce about to be revived. The merchants must keep out of their councils all bickerings and political strifes. The future of Memphis must be their aim; the merchants must look to its commercial advantages, the great schemes now on foot for her advancement, the immigration movement and others--if this is not done combined intellect, talent, natural advantages and all, will avail nought. But if they all come up and all pull together, we have a splendid future. No citizen should do anything inimical to the interests of the city, of course, but in urging this movement I cannot see how the passage of this resolution can have any injurious effects, and if in naming Norfolk the gentleman thinks it does, he can make an amendment, "Norfolk or any other sea-port city."

Mr. Gates rose to make the amendment, but Mr. Cherry thought if the third section of the preamble were struck out the resolution would be satisfactory, and made a motion to that effect.

Mr. J. T. Stratton was opposed to striking out anything. We may lose a little trade from a portion of the country because they can send their produce to a better market; but let us once persuade the planters and cotton-growers that Memphis is a better market than New Orleans, and more direct to Europe, and we shall gain ten bales for every one we lose.

Mr. Pickett supported the resolution, and therefore seconded the resolution of Mr. Farrington.

Mr. Gates then accepted Mr. Cherry's amendment, and moved that Mr. Farrington's motion be amended by striking out the third section, and the amendment was carried by a vote of 11 to 9. The resolution as amended was then put and carried nem. con.

Capt. Mahan offered the following preamble and resolution, premising it by saying that the gentlemen were probably all aware that there is a movement on foot to test the legality of the tax law as construed by the County Clerk, John Loague, Esq. In view of which the following was prepared:

WHEREAS, The revenue act of the State of Tennessee for 1867-8, as construed by the Collector on Privileges in the county of Shelby, is unjustly burdensome to the merchants, and injurious to the commercial interests of Memphis; therefore

Resolved, That the Chamber of Commerce of Memphis will advise the merchants to resist, and will resist, by all lawful means, the payment of the per centage of tax prescribed on any article on which the tax has once been paid to the State, and also the collection of any tax on imports in the hands of the importer, or on the sales of such imports in the original packages by the importer.

Seconded by Mr. Pickett, and Mr. Mahan, before there was a vote, asked permission to read the following communication from W. Y. C. Humes, Esq., on the subject. The letter was handed to the Chair and read by him:

MEMPHIS, July 8, 1868.

Gentlemen: I regret to inform you that I did not succeed in getting a decision of the Supreme Court in the case involving the construction of the Revenue Act passed by the last Legislature of Tennessee. The Attorney of the County Court, Mr. Woodward, very kindly consented to make an agreed case, but after the agreed case was made ready, Mr. Loague, the Clerk of the County Court, whose name it was indispensable to use, refused to permit the agreed case to go up in his name. I then applied to Willis G. Reeves, Esq., Attorney-General for this District, and made an agreed case with him and presented it to the Supreme Court, but the delay caused by Mr. Loague's refusal, threw the application so near to the close of the Supreme Court that I failed to get the Court to take it up. I have submitted the question to the County Commissioners, and they have kindly consented to hear it to-morrow at 10 o'clock a.m. The question is one of the utmost importance to the commercial prosperity of Memphis, and arises as follows:

The Revenue Act of 1868, and the amendment thereto passed in 1865, after declaring the percentage which each merchant shall pay for his license, upon the invoice cost of the goods where purchased, added this clause, "unless the tax has once been paid to the State on the same goods." The Revenue Act of 1865, after declaring in the first clause of the first section, that the object of its passage by the Legislature was simply to amend the act of 1858 as to rates of taxation, proceeds to change the rates, and with the rest changes the rate as to merchants, but omits to insert the clause above quoted, to-wit: "Unless the tax has once been paid to the State on the same goods." The errors in Mr. Loague's construction of this act are two, both of which are extremely burdensome to the merchants and injurious to the commercial interests of Memphis. Mr. Loague construes the act of 1867 as a repeal of the act of 1865, and especially of the saving clause quoted above, and hence he changes the tax as often as the merchandise changes hands, from the wholesale merchant, through the city or country retail merchant to the consumer. This repetition of the tax compels the retail merchant of Memphis to add two per cent. more to the price he charges the consumer, than he otherwise would, and operates as a protection in favor of the merchants of cities in adjoining States. The second error is as palpable, and still more injurious. Under Mr. Loague's construction, the act authorizes him to tax importers, importing goods or produce from foreign countries or from other States. It has been settled by the Supreme Court of the United States for many years, that the power given to Congress by the Federal Constitution to regulate commerce, is exclusive, and no State is at liberty to pass any laws imposing a tax upon importers, importing goods from foreign countries, or from other States. Whether the tax be laid on the goods imported, or on the person of the merchant importing, is wholly immaterial; in each case, it is a restriction on the rights of commerce, which the States are not authorized to impose. The Legislature could not have intended to pass an act contravening a provision of the Federal Constitution, the construction and effect of which have been so long established and universally acquiesced in; and one of the wise rules of interpretation is that an ambiguous act shall be so construed as to give it a legal effect, and make it harmonize with the Constitution, rather than so as to make it contravene any provision of that instrument. This act may be enforced in the collection of the revenue properly due the State and county without imposing a tax on importers, or sales by them of imported articles. I am satisfied this is the true meaning of the act. Yours, truly,
W. Y. C. HUMES.

The resolutions were then voted on and adopted.

Mr. Mahan desired to offer the following resolutions, on account of something that was said in a former meeting about a local packet. This embodied his ideas on the subject:

WHEREAS, The manner in which some of our local packets have acted in refusing to receive and carry freight on which there is charged and shipped C. O. D., has had the effect of driving an immense amount of business from our city; and

Whereas, The Louisville, Cincinnati and St. Louis packets plying in the Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers and Vicksburg trade, all seek for and take C. O. D. orders, thereby depriving the city of that amount of trade, therefore,

Resolved, That the merchants of Memphis, through the Chamber of Commerce of this city, respectfully request the officers and managers of all our local packets to receive and carry all goods offered and shipped C. O. D.

Seconded by Mr. Gates, who then moved that the resolution be referred to the appropriate committee. Move seconded and carried. Referred to Committee on Steamboats and Freights.

Their being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Oliver vs McLean, interlocutory order.
Evans vs Richardson, reference.
Bell vs Wells, final decree.

The Clerk and Master will take an account to-day in the following case: Riggins vs. Fisher. A strange and unique chancery bill was filed on yesterday, styled, The State of Tennessee, ex rel A. P. Burdett vs. Geo. W. Waldran--solicitors for complainants, McRae & Walker, Pierce, Richards & Dix. The bill charges that Judge Waldran was not a citizen of Tennessee when appointed to office; that he permitted criminals to escape under writ of habeas corpus; that the Grand Jury which found bills of indictment against Beaumont and Burdett, Police Commissioners, were illegally impaneled, and that Judge Waldran had said Grand Jury impaneled with a view to these indictments. After charging many things, a writ of injunction was prayed for to stop the prosecution of the indictments against Burdett in the Municipal Court. Judge Smith made an order that Judge Waldran should only answer that part of the bill which charged him with not being a citizen of the State when appointed, and set Friday next to hear the motion for injunction. The other portions of the bill were stricken out. The Grand Jury of the Municipal Court found a large number of true bills for violations of law against Beaumont and Burdett, the latter by the chancery bill above mentioned seek to head off the prosecution of these indictments and if possible oust Judge Waldran from office for daring to charge the Grand Jury that the law had been violated by the police Commissioners. Had that famous charge not been made, this bill in chancery would never have been heard of.

LAW COURT--James O. Pierce, Judge. The jury in the case of Boro & Co. vs. Saint, had not been able to agree on yesterday. The question seems to be as to the consideration of the note in controversy--the defendant claiming that it was Confederate money. Court meets to-day as usual; no business will be transacted, except receiving the verdict of the jury in the above case.

MUNICIPAL COURT--Geo. W. Waldran, Judge.--The Jury in the case of the State vs. Charles Small, returned a verdict of "not guilty."

The defendants in the case of the State vs. Fuller & Woodward, pleaded guilty; fine $5 00 in first case, and $2 50 each in fourteen others.

The following cases have been set for trial to-day:

1820 to 1825 The State vs A. P. Burdett.
1851 to 1856 Same vs same.
1788 Same vs S. B. Beaumont.
1793 to 1797 Same vs same.
1780 Same vs same.
1801 to 1809 Same vs same.

The July term (law side) stands adjourned until Tuesday next, at which time garnishees will have to answer.

CRIMINAL COURT--Wm. Hunter, Judge--The case of the State vs. Henderson Ford, Sam Moody, R. G. Bedford, Henry Jones, indictment for the murder of Capt. Perry, was commenced on yesterday, and a jury impaneled. The evidence will be introduced to-day. Attorney-General Thorne, Col. Bullock, Col. Gantt, Van A. W. Anderson prosecute in behalf of the State. Messrs. Robinson, Orville Yerger, and Herne represent the defense. One of the defendants, R. G. Bedford, obtained a severance, and a nol pros. was entered as to the murder with reference to him, he having turned States' evidence. He will be introduced and examined to-day. Court meets to-day at 9 o'clock a.m.

Our Latest Improved
NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.
GROVESTEEN & CO.,
499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in this country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpractised and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. se6 d&wly

Hopkins did pay the sum of $500 00.

And whereas, in order to secure and save harmless the said John Overton, the drawers respectively of the aforesaid accommodation bills, and to secure also the said A. and J. Denniston Co. on the note aforesaid, the said Arthur M. Hopkins did execute an indenture of Trust, dated the 8th day of February, 1861, by and in which he conveyed to Charles Kortrecht the premises situate in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, known and described as follows: "A certain piece or parcel of land lying and being near the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, and cousisting of about ten acres, which is surveyed in fee simple by James W. Pryor, of the city of New York, to the said Arthur M. Hopkins, said conveyance being by deed now of record in the county, Illinois," which said land is more fully described as blocks three (3) and four (4) of James W. Hopkins by said James W. Pryor and Katherine M. Pryor, his wife, by their deed dated July 3, 1856, upon trust; that in case a majority of the beneficiaries in said indenture of Trust mentioned should direct a sale of said premises, then the said Charles Kortrecht was thereby authorized and instructed to sell said premises, at public auction, in the city of Memphis, State of Tennessee, after giving sixty days notice in one or more of the newspapers published in said city of Memphis, of the time and place of said sale, said sale to be made for cash or credit, as a majority of the beneficiaries in said indenture of Trust might direct, and to apply the proceeds of said sale to pay said accommodation bills and the note aforesaid, and to pay the residuder, if any, over to said Arthur M. Hopkins, as will appear by reference to said Trust Deed, recorded in the Recorder's office of Cook county, Illinois, in Book 210 of Deeds, page 92.

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of said accommodation bills and note, and application has been been made and a sale of said premises, for cash, has been directed by a majority of said beneficiaries in said indenture of Trust named, for the purpose of carrying out said Trust; now, therefore, public notice is hereby given, that I will, on

Monday, 31st Day of August, A.D., 1868,

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY PPEAL, } MEMPHIS, July 8, 1868. }

The weather remains hot and sultry, and business is retarded in consequence. With hot weather we will soon have the season of low water and higher freights, but as prices generally are tending downward it is more than probable that the extra freights will not keep market values up to their present standard in this market, and will greatly reduce them above, where the difficulty attending shipment is growing daily. Dead low water in the Ohio and the Arkansas may be looked for within a week or two, soon to be followed by a like state of affairs in the Upper Mississippi and White rivers. Local finances jog along evenly, with no special change. All of our banks report the currency market easy and Exchange about equal to the demand. A bill of $40,000 on New York was taken to-day by the First National Bank at ¼ premium. The selling rates remain as on yesterday on all points.

Gold opened in New York to-day at 140⅜ and closed at the same, not varying during the day. Very light transactions are reported here in coin, with no demand. Brokers buy to ship and keep up a fair margin on New York quotations. We quote at 139 to 140c buying. Selling at 140½ to 141c.

City Scrip is quiet but firm. Buying at 75 to 76c. Selling at 78 to 80c as to amount.

County Warrants are dull at 59 to 60c buying. Selling at 63 to 65c.

Police Scrip weak. Buying at 75c. Selling at 80 to 82c.

The following are the New York quotations on Governments: Coupons, '81, 12¾; do '62, 13; do '64, 9⅝; do '65, 11¼; do new issue, 8½; do '67, 8½; 10-40s, 7½; 7-30s, 8½, Old Tennessees, 70½; new, 69½.

In stocks and bonds there is a fair inquiry, but no offerings of consequence. We quote nominally as follows: Memphis and Charleston Railroad stock 56c. Mississippi and Tennessee, 1st mortgage 50c; 2d do, 33 to 35c. Memphis & Ohio Railroad stock, 10c; 1st mortgage 10s, 30s; 2d do 6s, 20c. Mississippi Central, 1st mortgage, 58c; 2d do, 40 to 42c. Memphis and Little Rock bonds are entirely nominal, there being no demand.

The meeting at the Chamber of Commerce to-day was tolerably well attended. Several important matters came up. The proceedings will be found in our local colmns.

The Liverpool cotton market was buoyant at the opening to-day. Uplands, 11½ to 11¼d. Orleans, 11½ to 11¼d. At the close the market was quiet, but steady—no sales given.

The New York market was quiet but steady at the opening. Low Middlings, 31½c. Middlings, 32½c. Orleans, 33½c. Good Middlings, 34½c. At noon there was no change and the close was dull and heavy but holders were unwilling to make concessions. Middlings, 32½ to 32¾c. Other grades unchanged.

In this market there were no sales. Holders ask 30 to 31c for Low Middlings. No fine cottons in the market.

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE NATIONAL
COMPANY.

A new enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country through which the lines pass.

The Capital is to be

$10,000,000,

In 100,000 Shares, of the par value of

$100 PER SHARE,

But the actual amount to be paid in cash is

$35 Per Share,

And this amount is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more, until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; instalments not to exceed five per cent. per month. When thirty-five per cent. of the par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued This will give the company a paid up

CASH CAPITAL OF $3,500,000,

Which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The present Telegraph Companies of the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines, their present capital having been watered over ONE THOUSAND per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchises ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States.
